20.7.2023 - Sprint

Sprint competition took place in the Museum of the Slovak village in Martin. The terrain in the area is mostly meadows with small hills and bushes. The competition area is split into two separate regions by the museum fence. This separation was used by track setters to distinguish between the „slow“ and „fast“ round of the sprint.

Competition summary

The sprint competition proceeded without any significant technical issues. There were no official protests by the competitors. Due to programming error the SI readout station in the finish was not operating properly. During this time finish jury Lukáš Račko collected the chips and read them after reprogramming of the station.

21.7.2023 - 144MHz band

The 144MHz band competition took place in the Jedľoviny forest which is set just under the Malá Fatra mountain range. Due to this the terrain is mountainous covered by forrest with occasional cutouts. The map is traversed by two minor roads connecting suburbs of the Martin city.

Competition summary

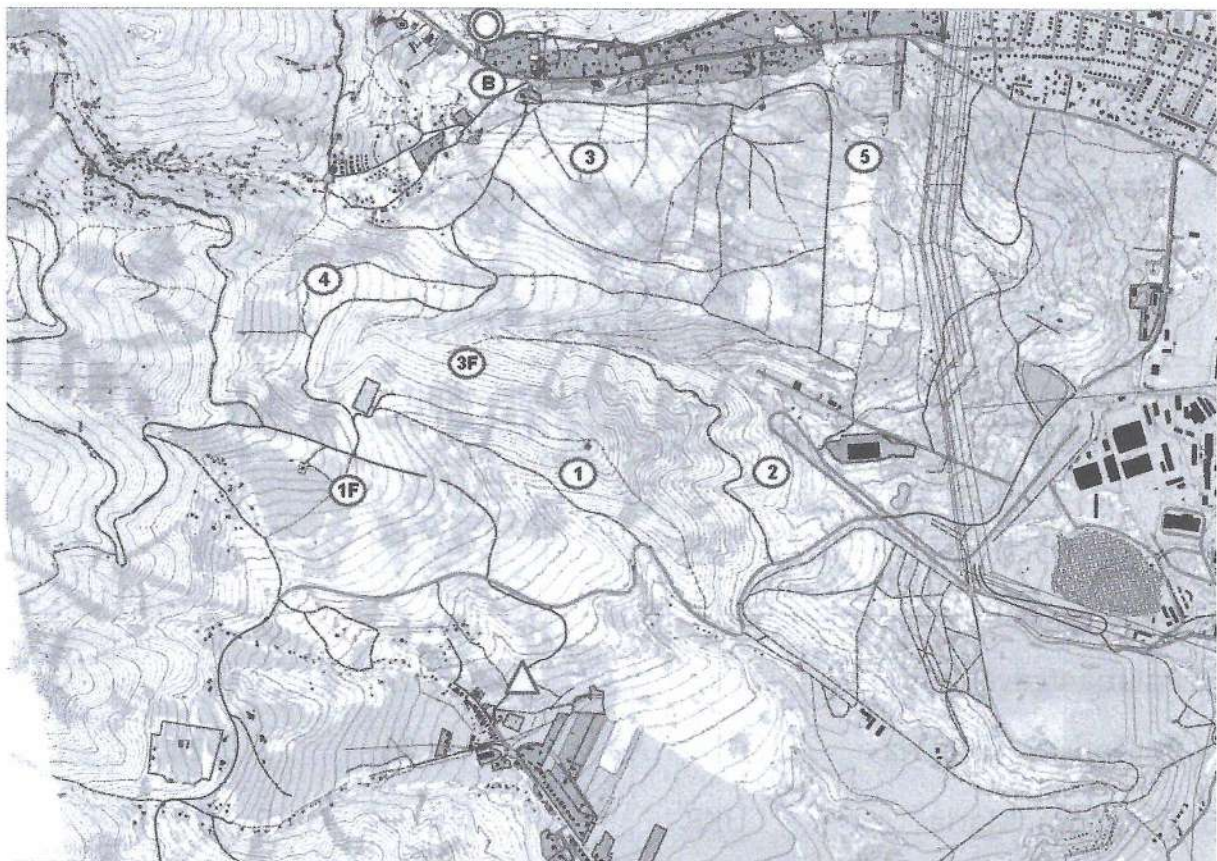

The 144MHz competition proceeded without any major technical issues. There were no protests reported.

22.7.2023 - 3,5MHz band

The 3,5 MHz competition took place between the village of Bystrička and the Martin city. The terrain of the competition is under the Malá Fatra mountain range with steep mountains covered in forest with occasional cutouts and bushes with multiple roads. The northern part of the map is covered by marsh and separated from the finish area by a frequented road. Due to this the beacon was set up on the southern side of the road so that the traffic on the road could be regulated by the organizers to ensure safe passage of the competitors to the finish.

Competition summary

The 3,5 MHz competition proceeded without any major technical issues. The competitor StNo. 61 Prydyba Illya was reported by competitor StNo. 107 Jozef Král to have been communicating during the competition. Due to the competitor's young age Král decided not to issue an official protest against the competitor after he and his coach had been warned by the organizers.

23.7.2023 - Foxoring

The Foxoring competition took place in the southern part of the Jedľoviny forest around the suburbs of Martin. The terrain is located under the Malá Fatra mountain range with hills covered by forest.
